"I Took Your Place" (Author Unknown)

One Sunday, a man went to visit a church. He arrived early, parked his car, and got out.

Another car pulled up near him, and then the driver told him, "I always park there. You took my place!"

The visitor went inside the church, found an empty seat, and sat down.

Just then, a young lady from the church approached him and stated, "That's my seat! You took my place!"

The visitor was somewhat distressed by this rude welcome, but he said nothing.

After that, the visitor went into the church sanctuary and sat down. Another member walked up to him and said, "That's where I always sit. You took my place!"

The visitor was even more troubled by this treatment, but still he said absolutely nothing.

Later, as the congregation was praying for Christ to dwell among them, the visitor stood, and his appearance began to change.

Horrible scars became visible on his hands and on his sandaled feet. Someone from the congregation noticed him and called out, "What happened to you?"

The visitor replied, "I took your place."

—Prayerful wishes, Fr. Joseph

"Give to the Most High as he has given to you, for the Lord is one who always repays, and he will give back to you sevenfold."

Today's Homily

THE 4TH SUNDAY of Easter is known as Good Shepherd Sunday, and it is also the "World Day of Prayer for Vocations." The Scripture lessons for this day concern the role of the shepherds of God's flock in the Church.

Each year on this Sunday, we reflect on the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd who devotedly and kindly takes care of his flock. The title "pastor" means shepherd. A shepherd leads, feeds, nurtures, comforts, corrects, and protects his flock—responsibilities that belong to every Church leader.

The Good Shepherd in the New Testament:

Introducing Himself as the Good Shepherd of His flock, Jesus makes three claims in today's Gospel.

He knows His sheep and His sheep hear His voice: Just as the Palestinian shepherds knew each sheep of their flock by name, and the sheep knew their shepherd and his voice, so Jesus knows each one of us, our needs, our merits and our faults. He loves us as we are, with all our limitations, and He expects us to return His love by keeping his words. He speaks to us at every Mass, through the Bible, through our pastors, through our parents, through our friends, and through the events of our lives. "God whispers to us in our pleasures; He speaks to us in our consciences; and, He shouts to us in our pain!" (C.S. Lewis).

He gives eternal life to us, His sheep, by receiving us into His sheepfold and giving us Faith through Baptism, and then He strengthens that Faith in Confirmation. He supplies food for our souls in the Holy Eucharist and in the Divine words of the Holy Bible. He makes our society holy by the Sacraments of Matrimony and the priesthood (Holy Orders).

He protects His sheep by placing them in the loving hands of His Almighty Father. Without Him to guide us and protect us, we are an easy prey for the spiritual wolves of this world, including Satan and his minions.

In Chapter 10 of John's Gospel, Jesus adds two more roles to those of the Good Shepherd. He goes in search of stray lambs and heals the sick ones. Jesus heals the wounds of our souls through the Sacrament of Reconciliation and strengthens us in illness and old age with the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

Jesus dies for His sheep:

Just as the shepherds of ancient days protected their sheep from wild animals and thieves by risking their own lives, so Jesus died in expiation for the sins of all people.

Let us become good shepherds and good sheep, good leaders and good followers. Everyone who is entrusted with the care of others is a shepherd. Hence, pastors, parents, teachers, doctors, nurses, government officials, etc., are all shepherds. We become good shepherds by loving those entrusted to us, praying for them, spending our time and talents for their welfare, and guarding them from physical and spiritual dangers. Parents must be especially careful of their duties, thus giving their children a good example through the way they live their Christian lives.

Let us be good sheep in the fold of Jesus, the Good Shepherd: Our local parish is our sheepfold, and our pastors are our shepherds. Jesus is the High Priest, the bishops are the successors of the apostles, the pastors are their helpers, and the parishioners are the sheep. Hence, as the good sheep of the parish, parishioners are expected to a) hear and follow the voice of their shepherds through their homilies, Bible classes, counseling and advice; b) receive the spiritual food our pastors provide by regular participation in the Holy Mass, by frequenting the Sacraments, and by attending prayer services, renewal programs, and missions.

Let us pray for vocations to a priestly and religious life so that we may have more good shepherds to lead, feed, and protect the Catholic community. Let us remember that the duty of fostering vocations is the concern of the whole believing community, and we discharge that responsibility primarily by living exemplary Christian lives.

The Year of St. Joseph

*Thursday, April 29th
Memorial of St Catherine of Siena,
Virgin and Doctor of the Church

Born and raised in Siena, Catherine wanted to devote herself to God at an early age—against the will of her parents. She joined the mantellate, a group of pious women—primarily widows—informally devoted to Dominican spirituality. Her influence with Pope Gregory XI played a role in his decision to leave Avignon for Rome. She was then sent by him to negotiate peace with Florence. After his death and peace concluded, she returned to Siena.

The Great Schism of the West led her to go to Rome. She sent numerous letters to princes and cardinals to promote obedience to Pope Urban VI and defend what she called the "Vessel of the Church."

Catherine died on April 29, 1380, exhausted by her rigorous fasting.

Thank You!

Upon my return from the Clergy Retreat, I saw the Sanctuary in a new light! I want to extend my thanks and gratitude to the wonderful people who completed this amazing feat of painting, cleaning, and making our new corbels:

Dan Arian ☆ Chuck & Diane Giovanini
Hans Kaumanns ☆ Bob Leonard
Mark Lucky ☆ Huber Vargas
Apolonio Villagomez ☆ Mark Lucky

—Blessings, Fr. Joseph

No Mass

Fr. Joseph will be gone from Monday, May 3rd, until Friday, May 7th. There will be no Mass on those days.

May Clean-Up

We are still looking for volunteers to help clean up the church, the hall, including classrooms, and the storage units on Saturday, May 15th, Saturday May 22nd, and Saturday, May 29th. This will entail, painting, general repairs where needed, recycling things that are no longer needed or being used, and even some yard work.

There is a clipboard in the Narthex to sign up. This is a great team-building and will provides credit hours for our Confirmation students.
